Mound 69

Prologue:

This is your 1969 Mound, to cherish and to keep. It is an honest attempt to capture, in prose and in pictures, the few years you have spent at Fairmont State College. At the same time it will explore the attitudes of your fellow students and the moods which affect them in the environment of the "Hill", the exhilarations, the depression, the loves, the apathy.

We trust that you, the reader, will find the Mound a mirror, in some small way, of your own experience at this school. Hopefully it will even teach you something about yourself as an individual. If not, we have failed.

Failure to communicate is not forgetfulness, however. You can surely take solace in the fact if in no other that your picture appears at least once in this book and even if it does not, the resultant sense of loss or alienation is perhaps what the 1969 Mound is all about.

Spring into summer, summer

So rolls the changing year,

LIFE on the HILL

Freshman life begins with the acquiring of beanies which has become a custom of "Life on the Hill." Beanies are worn with dignity and pride and serve as an identification of freshmen.

Instilling of tradition is continued through the torch-light parade and the candlelight ceremony where freshmen learn the true meaning and spirit of FSC.

MR. AND MISS FRESHMAN

Gray Dotson and Valeria Dimock

Freshman Week activities end with the selection of Mr. and Miss Freshman. They are chosen by the members of the Freshman Class and their counselors on the basis of enthusiasm, participation, and potential leadership ability.

Attending classes and studying for first exams mark the real beginning of their college education, although ...

... attempts to study are often sacrificed for a long anticipated date ...

or time is taken for a short snooze.

The highlight of the football season is Homecoming during which students and alumni join in the true spirit of college life.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Other activities during Homecoming Weekend which add to students' enthusiasm are the band's performance and Homecoming parade.

HO�ECoMING QUEEN AND COURT

"Life on the Hill" not only includes studies and parties, but also students begin to experience the work involved in maintaining a peaceful and pleasant living atmosphere.

Frustrations of continuous and diligent studying can be released through many activities and sports provided by the college ...

A date for ping-pong in the recreation room of the "Nickel" ...

playing cards and studying in the

and an occasional experiment in hair styling.

As Christmas arrives students are busy preparing for the season's activities.

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR
Coach Joe Retton

Honored as "NAIA Coach of the Year" and named by the West Virginia Sports Writers as "Coach of the Year," Coach Joe Retton closed out the season with a slate of 26 wins and only 2 losses to mark the highest winning percentage ever compiled by a cage team at Fairmont State College. This came on the heels of the Falcons finishing last year in the runner-up spot nationally, and just three points from the NAIA championship. The Falcons were also voted in Kansas City as the team with the best sportsmanship. By popular demand, we are filling our sport section with more pictures and less type this year.

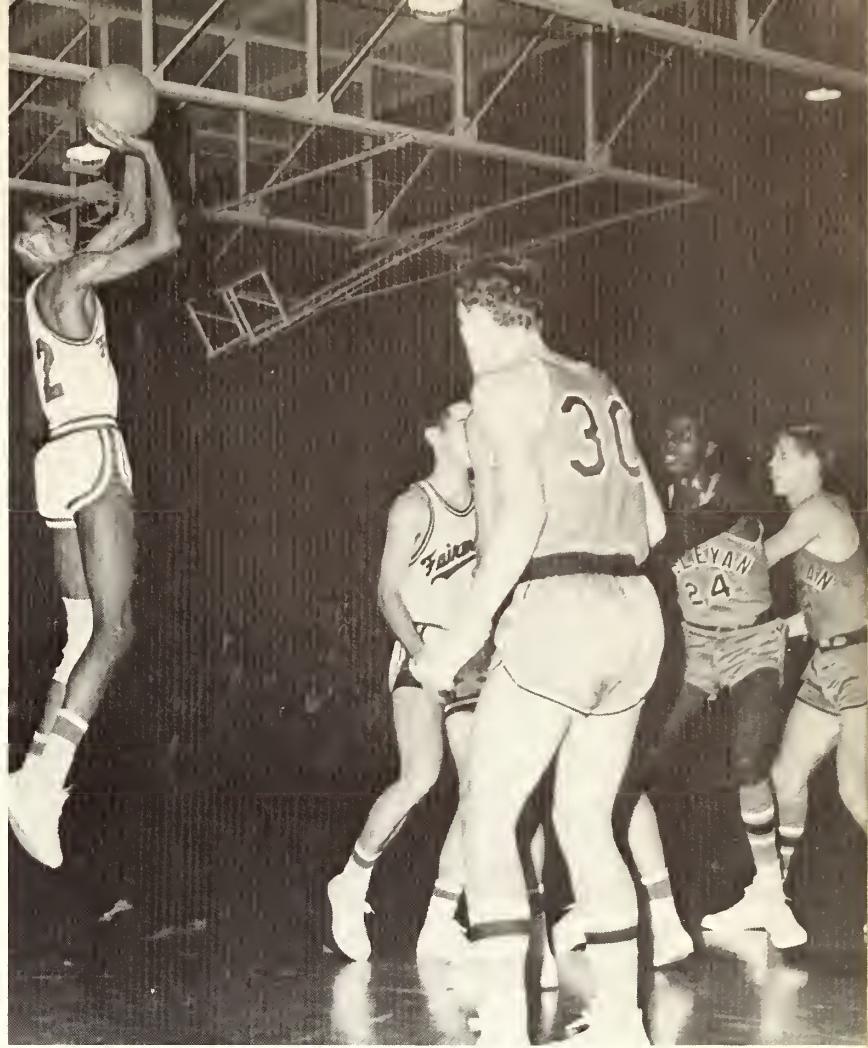

Wayne Denham powers his way through the Beckley defense for two points.

Cooper drives around Wesleyan defender to score for the Falcons.

John Jamerson picks off a rebound against West Virginia Wesleyan.

Bill Moody shows poise as he fires a jump shot.

Senior, Pat Sloan holds as he sets up a play against West Virginia State in the WVIAC Tournaments.

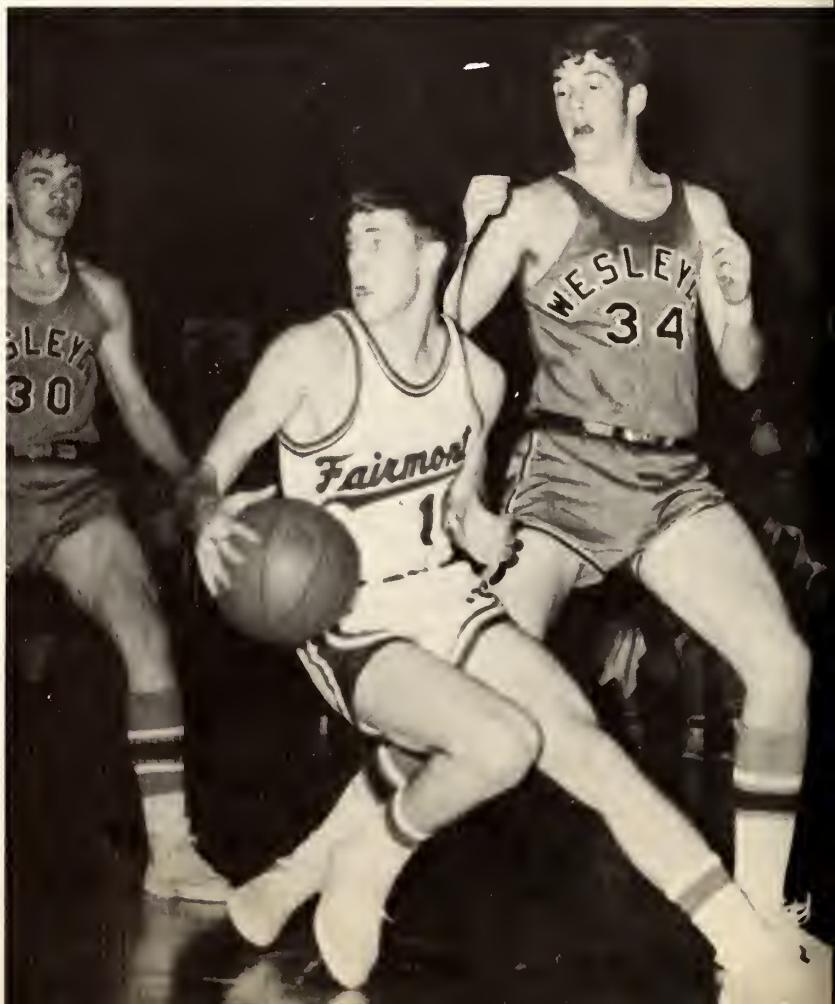

Wayne Denham, center, lays the ball in for two against Concord.

Dave Gardner dribbles past his defender as he heads for the basket.

Dave Cooper works his way between Wesleyan defenders.

Denham pumps in two against West Liberty.

With the hot hand shooting of Bill Moody, the Wesleyan Bobcats find the going tough.

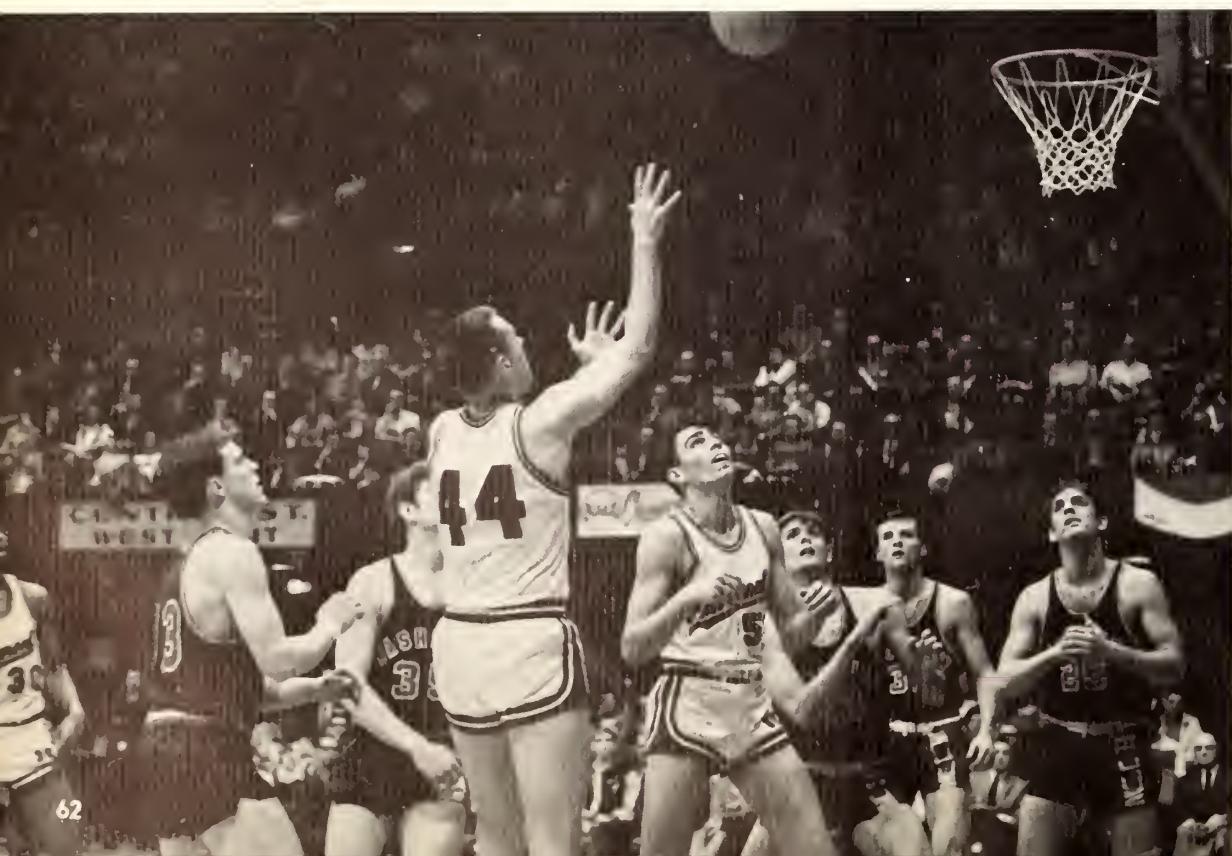

Falcon guard, Dave Cooper hustles down the floor to set up a play.

Bill Moody fires away for two despite a Washburn defender.

John Jamerson pumps in another basket at the tournaments in Kansas City.

Jamerson fires two from the corner.

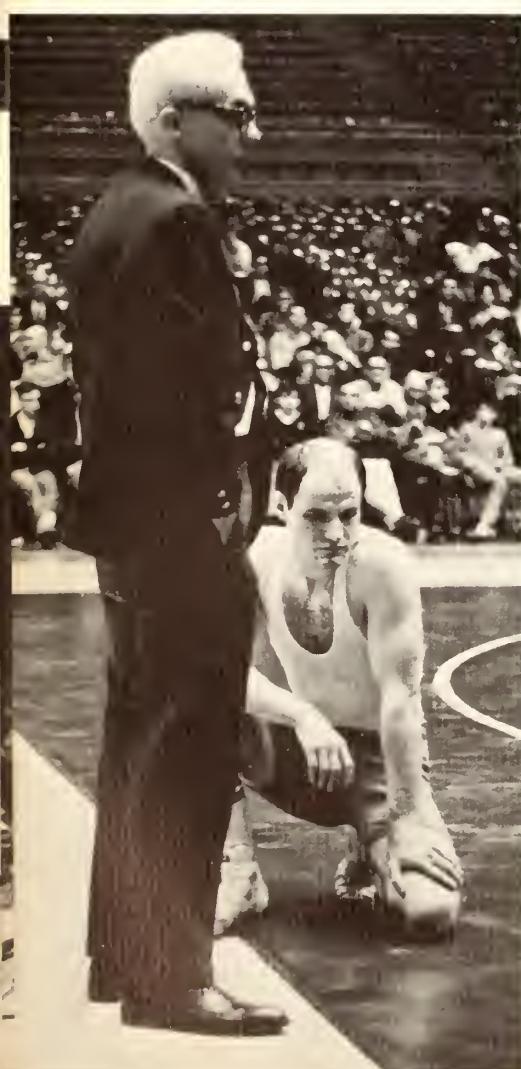

Dave Gardner overcomes a determined Indiana Central opposition to grab a rebound.

Pat McGinnis, jack-of-all-trades, tapes Wayne Denham's ankle. Pat has been trainer-manager for the Falcon football, basketball and baseball teams over the past four seasons.

Headed for the NAIA were Heavyweight Matt Fortier, Wayne Bitner, Charles Nicholson and Bill Donohew. Nicholson wrestles at 152 pounds, Donohew at 160, Bitner at 167 and Fortier in the unlimited classification.

Who will build his future in West Virginia?

He can put up a treehouse himself. But building his future in West Virginia is something else. He'll need help. We can do this best by creating opportunities for a full and productive life here.

Hope Gas works hard to attract new industries . . . cooperating with state and local agencies to develop the potential of West Virginia. We at Hope think that young people are one of our most important natural resources.

electric woman

Without the electricity we make here at Monongahela Power, a girl might as well live in the dark ages.

And what low-priced electric service does—for what it costs—makes it just about the biggest value you can get.

Fact is, today the average American family gets about twice as much electricity for a dollar as families did thirty years ago.

Pretty significant when you think about how the price of almost everything else has gone way up.
